

Annex III: Classification Tree based on Annex I and II

Sample of a student's classification tree - effectively identifying a category of comparison and the relevant examples/evidence from each source that helps to illustrate the similarity or difference in each category.

Furthermore, student identified that while there was some pricing information in Source A, there was too little information provided overall to make any conclusions about whether fees were cheap or expensive. The classification tree also recognises the potential dead-ends in comparisons.